DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 5-15 remain withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Saitou of record for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 9/8/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the Saitou (Figs. 17-18) wire (L) connects two bonding pads that are within the circuit block (21) and that neither one of the pads that the wire connects is part of the main circuit because the wire (L) is entirely within the outline (21) as defined by the examiner.

Applicant's argument is not convincing. As stated in the previous office action, the designation of a "circuit block" is defined relative to one's view point/perspective (i.e. it is an arbitrary nomenclature). Thus, in Saitou (Fig. 18) the pad connected to the line (20) can be considered part of the "main circuit" since such a designation is arbitrary.

Applicant also argues that the claim requires the wire (L) to connect the first pad to a second pad within and connected to the circuit block.

This argument is not commensurate with what is claimed and thus is not convincing.

Also, Applicant argues that neither of the pads of Saitou is between the input and output terminals.

This argument is not convincing since Saitou does indeed show that the pads are between the input and output. The Saitou pads are clearly shown in Fig. 18 connected to the line (20) at a point that is between the input of the transistor and the output of the line (20).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 4 remains objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
